Meeting Room Fees

Meeting room space is available in the MJ Murdock Charitable Trust Community Meeting wing of the Main Library in Lakeview. Please see the library Meeting Room Use Policy for more details.

The meeting room is available without charge to non-profit, civic, and community organizations, or local government entities for non-commercial uses such as meetings, lectures, or similar activities.

Any event where an attendance fee is charged, products or services are sold or fundraising is done will be considered commercial use and subject to the following fees. Additionally, the meeting room may be used for private events such as wedding receptions or family reunions. Private events are subject to the same fees as commercial use.

Commercial use fees:

$20 per hour, with a 2 hour minimum ($40)

Maximum daily cost $150

Questions about meeting room fees or the Meeting Room Use Policy may be directed to the Library Director.
